7.0 Lawfulness of processing data

7.1 One of the main data protection obligations requires the University (and its employees) to process Personal Data lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner. This means under Article 6 that the University (and each employee) must comply with at least one of the following conditions when processing Personal Data:

14.0 Data loss or security breach procedure

14.1 There are potentially significant repercussions for the University and the individuals affected arising from a data loss or security breach. Where this occurs or you suspect it may have occurred you must:

- Immediately report the details to the Service Desk. If they are not available then you must contact the Data Protection Officer and Service Delivery Manager providing them with as much information as you have available;
- It is important that this is done as quickly as possible as it may be possible to reduce the impact of the breach by remote deletion, removal or other means.
- Follow their guidance on dealing with the security breach and keep them up to date with any further information about it that you become aware of;
- Not approach any individual data subjects, suppliers, regulators or make any public announcements about the security breach incident without the prior agreement of the University Secretary.
- Also see Data Breach Procedure at Appendix 1 to this Policy.

14.2 The member of staff responsible for the data breach must undertake a mandatory data protection course as directed by the DPO. The course must normally be completed within 2 weeks of the date of the report of the data breach but up to a maximum of 4 weeks if agreed by the DPO and the relevant line manager. It is the member of staff's responsibility to inform the DPO and the Organisation Development Manager once the course has been completed. Failure to complete the course in the time agreed could be viewed as a disciplinary issue.

1.7 It is important that assessment of the incident, its management and outcomes are considered in order to improve this procedure and the handling of data security breaches. The DPO and SDM should consider whether there are any learning outcomes from each incident.

2.0 Policies applicable

2.1 In order to comply with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK GDPR, organisations which process personal data must take approprw 1j4(D)-1.62.5(m)9o3.3(d)-2su1.7

5.0 Roles and responsibilities

5.1 Staff who experience or discover a data loss are responsible for reporting it immediately and should know to whom they should report or escalate an incident. This will normally be their line manager. The line manager should immediately report the incident to the Service Desk. If the line manager is not available then the staff member should report the incident to the Service Desk themselves, as a matter of urgency.

5.2 Students should normally report incidents to their tutor or supervisor, who will be responsible for onward reporting of the incident to the Service Desk. Most instances of students processing personal data are not within the scope of the UK GDPR as personal use of data is not governed by the UK GDPR.

5.3 The incident owner will normally be the Data Protection Officer or Service Delivery Manager

6.3 If in doubt, it is better to report a suspected incident than to ignore it

6.4 On becoming aware of a data security breach there may be immediate actions you can take to contain or lessen the impact. In the situations described, these could include

- Immediately recalling an incorrectly sent email. Or, if the recall is unsuccessful, by contacting the person/people to whom personal data has been disclosed, apologising and asking them to securely delete it from their systems (including from deleted items folders) and to immediately confirm that they have done so
- Immediately retrieving paper documents from any unintended recipients.
- Immediately disabling any lost or stolen data storage devices.

7.0 Information Gathering

7.1 It is the responsibility of all staff involved in any data loss or breach to gather enough information to determine whether or not a data breach has actually occurred and the urgency of response required. If in any doubt the Data Protection Officer and the Service Delivery Manager can offer advice on the type of information required to make a reasoned decision.
